BCRSGF Judging Certification Program

NOTE: The BC Program is different from GCG from Trainee through Provincial.

TRAINEE (Entry Level)

Entry Requirements

- BCRSGF and GCG membership
- Minimum 16 years of age
- 1 hour course
- Trainee Level Exam

To Club 2

- Must judge at a minimum of 6 events over a 2 year period as a trainee
- Submit assessments for each event
- Recommendation of the Judges Committee for acceptance as C2
- Minimum 18 years of age
- Club Level Course 8 hours
- Club Level Exam open book 1 hour exam to include questions on the provincial code must get 75% average of written and practical components

To Club 1

- Must judge at a minimum of 6 events over a 2 year period on an execution panel
- Submit assessments for each event
- Recommendation of the Judges Committee for acceptance as C1

To Provincial 2

- Must judge at a minimum of 6 events over a 2 year period as a club level judge
- Submit assessments for each event
- Recommendation of the Judges Committee for acceptance as P2
- Minimum 20 years of age
- Minimum Provincial Level Course 16 hours
- National Level Exam closed book must get 75% average of written and practical components

- Must judge at a minimum of 6 events over a 2 year period on any panel
- Submit assessments for each event
- Recommendation of the Judges Committee for acceptance as P1

To National 3

- Must judge at a minimum of 6 events over a 2 year period on any panel
- Submit assessments for each event
- Recommendation of the Judges Committee for acceptance as N3
- Additional requirements will be determined by GCG rules and regulations

NOTE: Entry Challenge - Former national stream athlete who have competed in Canada for minimum 2 years and are a minimum of 18 years of age may challenge to enter at the P2 level.